Vacationer's Guide

How to Explore the Magic Kingdom

With so many things to see and do, most guests find it takes at least two days to visit all of the Magic Kingdom. Each day's entrance into the Magic Kingdom requires an admission ticket.

The GUIDED TOUR is a great way for first-time visitors to see the Magic Kingdom.
Guests on the approximately 3½ hour walking tour learn about the history and growth of the Magic Kingdom and visit five popular attractions with their guide. Admission to two other attractions of the guest's choice is also included. Adult $11.25 Child (3-11) $7.50

Individual tickets, on an "A", "B", "C", "D" and "E" basis, are required for admission to most attractions. Some attractions are complimentary. Magic Kingdom ticket books are the most economical and convenient way to purchase tickets. All ticket packages include entrance into the Magic Kingdom and use of the Walt Disney World transportation system (monorails, ferryboat).

A Magic Kingdom
Surrounded by 43 Square Miles of Excitement

At Walt Disney World, most people know us by our Magic Kingdom. But we also have 43 square miles of other great things to do. With the color and glamour of three themed resort hotels, the camping adventures of the Fort Wilderness Resort and the wonder of the Walt Disney World Village at Lake Buena Vista, Walt Disney World guests are never at a loss for fun and excitement!

Stay at the futuristic Contemporary Resort Hotel; the romantic Polynesian Village Resort Hotel; the championship Golf Resort; the Treehouse, Vacation and Fairway Villas of Lake Buena Vista; or our beautiful campground in the Fort Wilderness Resort.

Go sailing, motor boating, water-skiing and swimming in 650 acres of lakes. Or hiking, biking, canoeing, or fishing. Play golf — on all three of our championship courses. And tennis — on professional courts.

Sample a dinner show with celebrity entertainment in our penthouse supper club, the Top of the World. Enjoy a Polynesian feast and native dances at a luau. Or chow down on home-style cookin' and watch the rip roarin' Pioneer Hall "Hoop-Dee-Doo Musical Revue."

Dine on Chateaubriand at the Lake Buena Vista Club. Savor Chicken Pago-Pago on a romantic verandah overlooking Papeete Bay. Or snack on crab claws and Strawberry Margaritas in an octagonal oyster bar surrounded by the Buena Vista Lagoon.

Enjoy a complete shopping-dining-entertainment experience at the Walt Disney World Village at Lake Buena Vista. Watch Old World craftsmen practicing the arts of crystal cutting and gold inlaying. Saunter among cedar-shingled shops and sightsee to your heart's content. Then tap your foot to the music of a Dixieland band aboard the Empress Lilly riverboat restaurant.

And, of course, see the Magic Kingdom! Where six themed lands capture the spirits of history, fantasy and adventure — with magic. Stroll beneath the soft glow of gaslights in turn-of-the-century Main Street, U.S.A. Sail with a crew of rowdy pirates and explore the tropical rivers of the world in Adventureland. Let a group of zany singing bears entertain you in the Old West atmosphere of Frontierland. Walk along Liberty Square's cobblestone streets and relive America's struggle for freedom. Greet your favorite childhood storybook characters amidst the happy aura of Fantasyland. And travel to a visionary future of rockets and space journeys in Tomorrowland.

Then splash into a day of water fun at River Country, in the Fort Wilderness Resort. Bring the whole family to the old-fashioned swimmin' hole and try some new-fangled ways of swingin', slidin' and ridin' into the water.

Come see it all. At Walt Disney World, we have 43 square miles for you and your family to discover, explore and enjoy!
